Carrollton Civic Woman's Club
General Meeting
Wednesday, May 22, 2002

President Nina Chaffin called the meeting to order at 11:30 am and introduced Bettye Collins Jones who gave the program on the New Hope Boys Home. Bettye has New Hope Cook Books for sale for $12. Lunch was served after the program. Helon Styles gave the devotional on Psalm 23. Edith Maxwell led the pledge to the flag. Callie Mohn introduced guest Penny Lewis from the Carrollton Cultural Arts Center. There were 36 members and one guest present.

Officers' reports

Second VP Gwyn Chestnut distributed activities sheets to all members to record all activities for the month.

Recording Secretary Sharon Hearnburg reported that minutes have been published and stand approved as published.

Treasurer Callie Mohn reported a beginning balance of $5,496.51; total deposits of $1,210.83; checks and payments of $1,164.98; and an ending balance of $5,542.36.

Unfinished business

Photos of all state award winners were made immediately following the meeting.

New business

Flower arrangements from Joanna McGee Browning's wedding were given as door prizes. Anna Fazio won the CIP fern. $18 was collected for CIP.

Department reports

Arts Co-Chair Johnnye Hutchens reported that Dr. Anglin and the chorus and art students from Tallulah Falls School will present the program in November. Laura Lovvorn of Bowdon won 2nd place in state art competition and $4,000. Beverly Britt won 1st place in seniors' talent show. An announcement was made about the upcoming production of 42nd Street by the Carrollton Community Theatre. The Arts Department gave 4 scholarships for the Carrollton Cultural Arts Art Camps. Idys Overton has tickets and needs hostesses for the Hidden Garden Tour on June 8 & 9.

Education: No report

Home Life: Thank you to Bettye Collins Jones for our program today.

International Affairs Chair Ginny McGee asked for volunteers to help with the international students' picnic to be held in mid August at the Fulford's. In October of 2003 Carrollton will host 19 Russian doctors for 17 days and volunteers will be needed to assist with their stay.

Public Affairs Chair Edith Maxwell reminded members to save coupons for COMFLEACT (Martha Ann Saunders) and toiletries for Women's Shelter (Marie Johnson). Edith received a letter from Amanda Bristol Camp asking for volunteers to be trained for CASA. Edith reported that ID Kit for Kids will be made at Haney Ford on Monday, May 27, from 9:00 until 1:00. Callie Mohn asked for volunteers to help with Rundown at Sundown on July 12, 2002, at Carrollton High School. Proceeds will go to Chamber of Commerce.

Committee Reports

Tallulah Falls Co-Chair Johnnye Hutchens reported that $195 from the sale of her bread and afghans has been sent to Tallulah Falls School.

CIP: Joy Gould reported that the "babies" were picked up from a successful stay at Central Middle School and will be available for summer youth programs.

Sunshine concerns include Dot Dees who had surgery and Gwyn Chestnut's sister-in-law who was in an accident.

Hospitality: Nina reported that the club will have a salad luncheon at the Bradley Street Fish House on Wednesday, June 26; reservations will be made through department chairpersons. On July 24 the club will have a picnic with spouses/significant others at McIntosh Park. Members with vans will be available to drive any who do not wish to drive that far.

Book Club: Johnnye Hutchens reported that plans have been made for book club in the fall.

Line Dancing: Marjorie Hudson reported that line dancing on Mondays at 4:00 pm will continue during the summer with Ron Akers from SUWG teaching. Plans are in the making for the organization of a Dream Weavers group to perform at nursing homes.

The meeting was adjourned at 1:30 pm.

10:00 AM

Those present included: Nina Chaffin, Joan Borders, Johnnye Hutchins, Joy Gould, Callie Mohn, Karen Hartley, Eleanor Hoomes, Martha Thurman, Gwyn Chesnut, Martha Ann Saunders, and Sharon Hearnburg.

President Nina Chaffin called the meeting to order. Nina gave the devotional. Club concerns include Juanita Cobb and Patsy Carlton.

Recording Secretary Sharon Hearnburg reported that the minutes of previous board meeting were published and stand approved as published.

President Nina Chaffin reported that she had received letters of resignation from Edith Cooley and Kitty Kaylor. Club Institute will be August 17 from 8:30 am until 4:30 pm at Athens, GA.

A motion, made by Johnnye Hutchins and seconded by Martha Ann Saunders, was passed to dispense with July Board Meeting. Information will be circulated through newsletter and telephone.

First VP Martha Ann Saunders reported that the club now has insurance through Seabury & Smith. The yearly fee for the insurance will need to be included in the budget each year.

Treasurer Callie Mohn reported that dues are now $45 for any who have not paid. The beginning balance was $5,496.51; deposits/credits were $1,210.83; checks/payments were $164.98; ending balance was $5,542.36. Callie circulated a list of all department expenses for department chairs. If you are interested in helping with Rundown at Sundown on July 12, contact Callie.

Unfinished Business

June meeting: Club members will meet on June 26 at 11:30 am at Bradley Street Fish House for lunch. All department chairs should contact department members to get number who will be attending. Nina will contact inactive members. Department chairs should call Nina by June 17, 2002, to give her number planning to attend.

July meeting: The July picnic will be July 24 at pavilion #2 at McIntosh. Department chairs should notify Eleanor Hoomes of number in their departments who will be attending. Everyone will meet at the parking lot of Tabernacle Baptist Church to carpool to McIntosh. Spouses and grandchildren are invited. A motion, made by Callie Mohn and seconded by Joy Gould, was passed to charge $9 per adult with children free. Eleanor Hoomes will arrange all food.

New Business

Annual Salad Luncheon: Since the Ag Center will be under renovation this fall, Martha Thurman will check with the Methodist Church to see if we can use their facilities for our annual Salad Luncheon on October 17, 2002.

Time for general meetings: A motion was made by Johnnye Hutchins and seconded by Joan Borders to survey club members to determine a preferred meeting time for general meeting. A motion, made by Sharon Hearnburg and seconded by Joy Gould, was passed to table the motion until January.

Department Reports

Arts Chair Johnnye Hutchins reported that art students from Tallulah Falls will be invited to the November meeting.

Conservation Chair Eleanor Hoomes reported the department had a picnic at Perry House to see results of their work done earlier. The department will meet next in October. Next year's focus for this department will be backyard habitats for wildlife and to replenish and replace at the Perry House.

Education Chair Martha Thurman reported that she received a letter of thanks from Rebecca Sullivan of Carrollton High School for the Achievement Award donated by the department. Martha will need assistance with refreshments for the Summer Reading Program on July 19.

Committee Reports

Nina Chaffin reported that Tallulah Falls School is undergoing renovation and the club has the opportunity to fund the redecoration of a room for $1500. Johnnye Hutchins will contact the Junior Club of Carrollton to see if they would be interested in going in with us on the project. Joan plans a trip to Tallulah Falls in the autumn.

CIP Chair Karen Hartley reported that the BTIO babies are going to Antioch Baptist Church in July. This will be the first time the babies have been used by a church group. The CCWC Foundation received $500 from the Noon Rotary Club earmarked for the BTIO project.

Legislative Chair Martha Ann Saunders announced a forum for all candidates from both parties for the 11th Congressional District will be held on June 25, at 10:30 am, at the Technology Learning Center, Room 1301, at State University of West Georgia. The candidates include:

Republican	Democrat
Phil Gingrey	Buddy Darden
Bob Herriott	Roger Kahn
Cecil Stanton

Please let Martha Ann know if you are active in any campaign, sponsor a coffee, etc.

Meeting was adjourned at 11:45 am.
