Next General Meeting

The November meeting will be at 11:30 on Wednesday, November 17, at Sunset Hills Country Club. The Arts Department will present the program, The Poetry of Youth, and will host the annual arts and crafts competition. Lee Long and Ann Fay Rushforth of the Carrollton Artists' Guild will serve as judges for the competition. Arts Department members are asked to come at 10:30 to assist with setup and paperwork.

Things to bring:

Items for the arts & crafts competition. Also, members with work done in the past year are invited to bring their projects along, completed or not, for display without entering the competition.

Nominations for the CCWC Citizenship Award

Canned goods for the Soup Kitchen

A wrapped Christmas gift for a boy or girl. Please attach a note to the gift specifying boy or girl and approximate age.

Annual report sheets

As always, Campbell Soup labels; toiletries; caps, hats, & wigs; old jewelry; used foreign stamps; manufacturers' cents-off coupons; aluminum can pull tabs; General Mills Box Tops for Education; newspaper clippings and photos of CCWC activities; old eyeglasses

Actions Taken by Board on November 11

- ✓ Voted to make a donation to Tallulah Falls School in memory of Frances Lawrence, who died November 2. Frances was a charter member of our club.
- ✓ Selected the Ferst Foundation reading program as the club's Community Involvement Contest (CIC) entry for 2004-2006

Lunch Reservation Committee

Members appointed to a committee to study the lunch reservation process are Karen Hartley, Gwyn Chesnut, Anna Fazio, Joy Gould, and Martha Ann Saunders (ex officio).

Annual Report Sheets

Individual report sheets are due to department chairpersons by the November 17 meeting. If you cannot attend the meeting, please get your report to your chair before the 17th. You may need to project activities and donations for the month of December as December is included in our reporting period. We are a very active and involved club, so let's do our best to report a complete picture of all that we do. If in doubt about where to report something, put it on the back and the department chairpersons will decide who needs to report it.

Department chairpersons will meet briefly after the November 17 meeting to divide the report pages. They will meet after the board meeting on December 9 at Martha Thurman's home (lunch included) to share report information as we cannot cross-report. We will also discuss reporting in general.

December Meeting

Mark your calendar! Our December general meeting will be Wednesday, December 15—a week earlier than usual—at Sunset Hills Country Club. Lunch will be served at 11:30. The executive committee will plan the program.

Department Reports

Arts: The CCWC has been invited to provide hostesses for the 2005 Decorators' Show House. The project is a fundraiser for the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra.

A holiday art sale begins November 12 at the Carrollton Cultural Arts Center.

Conservation: There will be a training session Monday, November 15, for persons interested in working with the Keep Carroll Beautiful project. Call Eleanor Hoomes, 770-854-8919, for details.

Education: Penny Ayers and Martha Ann Saunders gave a presentation on the Ferst Foundation reading project to the city school board. CCWC members also manned an information booth at the November 6 Arts on the Square show to acquaint the community with the project.

Home Life: Home Life members will collect donations of canned goods for the Soup Kitchen at the November 17 meeting. Members are also invited to bring a wrapped Christmas gift labeled for boy or girl of approximate age.

International Affairs: Members are encouraged to promote world friendship and peace by hosting and communicating with people from other countries. Include this information on your annual form for the International Department.

Public Affairs: The deadline for nominations for the CCWC Citizenship Award is Wednesday, November 17.

Plans for the Third Annual Christmas Tour of Homes are nearing completion. The tour is set for Sunday, December 12, and promises to be very special. Save the date! Proceeds from the tour will go to the New Hope Boys' Home.
