- Approved the membership application of Priscilla Bennett.
- Approved Clemmie Walker's request for inactive status.
- Accepted the resignations of Glenda Banks and Betty White.

From Our President:

Dear Club Members,

I want to thank all of you for a successful two years for CCWC. You should be proud of yourselves for all that's been accomplished. I do believe that the community has become increasingly aware of us as a civic organization. From a Fourth of July float, through window treatments, gardens at the Curtis-Marlowe-Perry House, international picnics, New Hope Boys Home, CLEW workshops, and Ferst Foundation, we've impacted a wide area of Carroll County life.

I know that you'll support Gwyn and the new administration as fully as you have the past one. Let's get the new year off to a great start!

Martha Ann

Angie Cook and Tish Stone have undergone surgeries.

Bunni Cook's daughter was injured in an automobile accident.

Joy Gould's brother-in-law has been seriously ill.

Marie Johnson has been hospitalized with congestive heart failure.

Micki McDonald has recovered from a severe drug reaction.

Sunshine

Bunni Cook has been appointed Sunshine Committee Chair.

Pancake Tickets

The Golden K will be cooking up breakfast at the Maple Street Mansion from 7:30 till noon each Saturday morning in February. The pancake breakfasts are a Carrollton tradition and are not to be missed.

Tickets are $6.00 each, and each ticket bought/sold by a CCWC member will yield $3.00 for our club. This is an easy fundraiser--see Gwyn for your supply of tickets. Checks should be made to the Carrollton Civic Woman's Club.

Department and Committee Reports

Arts: CCWC members will be invited to serve as docents at the upcoming Atlanta Decorators' Show House. The date will be announced soon. Plan to take a friend!

Among the events scheduled for the Cultural Arts Center in February is the High School Juried Art Exhibition, opening with a reception following the Kiwanis Art and Talent Showcase on Saturday, February 11.

Conservation: Georgia Arbor Day is Friday, February 17. The Great Backyard Bird Count is February 17-20. For directions and forms key in Great Backyard Bird Count on your computer or contact a member of the Conservation Department.

The second annual Keep Carroll Beautiful Litter Index will be conducted on Monday, February 13. Call Jacqueline Dost at 832-2446 (Chamber of Commerce) to volunteer.

Home Life: Thanks to everyone who contributed canned goods and toys to make one Carrollton family's Christmas bright. Here is the mother's response:

*Mrs. Tunnell and the Civic Woman's Club,
Our family wishes to send our greatest thanks to you for being our sponsor for Christmas! This means so much to my husband and I. We will be having a wonderful Christmas! May God bless all of you! We can't say thank you enough.*

With God's Blessings,

Love,

XXXX and Family

P.S. Thank you for all the food also!

International Affairs: International Night will be held Thursday, January 26, in the Food Services Building at the University of West Georgia. The University's international students will introduce the community to the culture and food of their native countries. Activities start at 6:45.

Public Affairs: In December Friends of New Hope enjoyed a pizza party with the boys and staff of New Hope Boys Home. Three boys' Christmas lists were purchased with Belk Charity Sale money and a church donation.

Public Affairs (continued): The Friends sent $2,500 to New Hope to fill in additional wish lists.

A Valentine party for the boys will be held at Ryan's Restaurant on February 11. Friends of New Hope will sponsor meals, valentines, and small cash gifts for the boys. Thanks to everyone for all of your support.

Leadership: The tentative date for the CLEW workshop is March 13. Judge Dennis Blackmon will lead a mock trial.

CIC: Ferst Foundation for Childhood Literacy: Over 1,600 Carroll County children are now registered to receive a book each month through the program.

Donations for the $25,000 challenge grant now total about $18,000. February 15 is the last day for donations toward the $25,000 goal.

For more information about the program or to make a donation, contact Martha Ann Saunders or Penny Ayers. Donations may also be sent to the Community Foundation of West Georgia, P.O. Box 1922, Carrollton, GA 30112. Be sure to specify that the donation is for the Ferst Foundation for Childhood Literacy, Carroll County. All contributions are tax deductible.
