

CARROLLTON CIVIC WOMAN'S CLUB

June 2008 Newsletter

Next General Meeting
Wednesday, June 25, 2008
11:30 A.M.
Sunset Hills Country Club

The FERST Foundation Committee member Penny Ayers will present data on the Ferst Foundation reading program.

Members are encouraged to bring set of books (like Hardy Boys), autographed books, or unusual books for the silent auction. Also, summer reading books can be contributed and will be sold for $2 hardcover or $1 paperbacks. Members who bring books to auction will be placed in a raffle for a ticket to the Bands, Burgers, Books Benefit on August 9.

Club Concerns

Beverly Hammack is recovering from surgery.
Elizabeth McCollum had back surgery.
Georgia Simons' husband Ted had hip surgery.

Officers' and Committee Reports

President:

Our fall fundraiser will be held October 7. Save the date, as every member's help is needed. You can give your auction items to Sandra Law or Nancy Tunnell. Items should be in excellent condition. If you have a question about an item you are considering donating, call Sandra or Nancy.

First Vice President:

The AARP Driver's Safety Class will be July 14 and 16, 9-1, at the Carrollton Community Activities Center. The cost is $10.

Treasurer:

Janet Kiczek reported we have a current balance of $15,754.51.

Department Reports

Conservation:

Eleanor Hoomes thanks everyone for their support of the Georgia Home and Garden Pilgrimage.

Education:

The department will serve snacks on July 10 at the presentation of certificates for the summer reading program at the Neva Lomason library.

Home Life:

Sandra Law and Nancy Tunnell ask that donations for the auction at the fall fundraiser be brought to them.

International Affairs:

The annual picnic to welcome international students attending the University of West Georgia will be August 11. Start to gather your donations for the lending box. Good quality items such as bedding, pillows, mugs, and kitchen items are some ideas for the lending box.

Public Affairs:

Diane Sharpe reported that department members held their most recent meeting at Appleby's on June 3 and used coupons to benefit the Bremen Junior Woman's Club. Plans are being made to contribute to a program with women soldiers who pass out needed items to Iraqi women and children.

Committee Reports

Ferst: Martha Ann Saunders reported that an operating account for the Ferst Foundation has been set up at CB&T.

Fundraising: Susan Smith is working hard to organize our fall fundraiser. It was decided that door prizes would be given this year.

Scrapbook: Roberta Brown has been unable to keep up the scrapbook and items will be kept in folders for the time being. Sue McBrayer will continue to keep the media book.

Sunshine: Martha Thurman asks everyone to inform Margaret Hickson of concerns of members and their families.

Tallulah Falls: Jennifer Dandliker has resigned as chair of this committee.

Upcoming Calendar:

General Meeting: Wednesday, June 25 at 11:30 a.m., Sunset Hills Country Club.

Anne Hill Book Club: No meeting in July. August meeting will be Eleanor Hoomes home.

Board Meeting: Thursday, July 10 at 10:00 a.m., Carrollton Activity Center.

Political Candidate Forums: Both at the Commission Chambers, College Street, 7-9PM

June 23: Tax Commissioner, Clerk of Court, Coroner

June 30: County Commissioner races for District 3 and 5

FLAG DATES:      July 4                      Independence Day
                                 July 27                      National Korean War Veterans Armistice Day

Carrollton Civic Woman's Club
General Meeting
Sunset Hills Country Club
May 28, 2008
11:30 A.M

Call to Order/Welcome—Martha Thurman, President

Club Concerns—Vann Saunders is back in the hospital and is hoping to be dismissed today. He will return to Carrollton Manor. Janice Brock passed away recently. Beverly Hammack is recovering from surgery.

Inspiration—Johnnye Hutchins

Pledge of Allegiance to the U.S. Flag—Johnnye Hutchins

Minutes—The minutes of the April general meeting were approved as published in the May newsletter.

Program—The Tallulah Falls Committee was in charge of the program for this month. Kathy Moffeit introduced Dr. Larry Peevey, President of Tallulah Falls School. His topic was “Tallulah Falls Update”.

Old Business—

- Second quarter dues are due ($50); third quarter dues are due in July.
- The Georgia Home and Garden Pilgrimage is scheduled for this area on June 7 and 8. The Gala is June 6. Volunteers are needed for hosting the Curtis Garden. Sign-up sheets were circulated to members.
- Members were brought up to date on the Sunset Hills Country Club (SHCC) lunch costs. The following recommendation from the Executive Committee was passed by the general membership:
CCWC will remain at SHCC and experiment with served plates featuring alternating combinations of salads, fruits, quiches, soups, and sandwiches. The cost of each lunch remains the same until January. CCWC will renegotiate with SHCC at the end of 2008.

New Business—

- Penny Ayers reported that the Bands, Burgers, Books Benefit (BBBB) for the Ferst Foundation is scheduled for August 9. A variety of bands will be featured. Kroger is providing the food. Books will be sold and auctioned. Local authors will be participating. Ads for the BBBB booklet will be sold soon. Members should contact Penny or Martha Ann Saunders if able to help.
- The International Picnic is scheduled for August 11. Items will be needed for the Lending Box.
- The fall fundraiser salad luncheon and auction is scheduled for October 7. Items are needed for the auction.

First Vice President—Laura Miller invited members to introduce their guests. Eleanor Hoomes introduced her granddaughter, and Nancy Smith introduced Judy Hight. Also, our newest member, Kimber Pepper, was recognized.

Department Reports—

- Arts—Clancy Haslam thanked those who attended the Decorators' Show House recently.
- Home Life—Sandra Law and Nancy Tunnell reported that May is Stroke Awareness Month and called attention to information available on the projects table.
- International—Frances Jackson reminded members that Lending Box items will be needed for the International Picnic on August 11. Food items will be needed for the picnic.
- Public Affairs—Diane Sharp announced:
  - Patriotic ribbons were supplied today by Public Affairs in recognition of Memorial Day.
  - Names, addresses, and supplies are needed for the care packages for military in the Middle East.
  - Toiletries were sent recently to the Emergency Shelter.

Committee Reports—

- Legislative/Public Policy—Martha Ann Saunders reported that there will be forums in June for persons running for local offices. Dates will be forthcoming.
- Scrapbook—Members are requested to give items for the scrapbook to Gwyn Chesnut so that she can deliver them to Roberta Brown.

Announcements—

- Applebee's "Dining to Donate" will benefit the Jr. Woman's Club on June 3. Coupons were given to interested members.
- Ann Hill Book Club will meet June 5 at the home of Dianne Cox.
- Next board meeting is June 12.
- Next general meeting is June 25.
- Johnnye Hutchins reported that $27.38 was collected today for the students' spending money at Tallulah Falls.

The meeting was adjourned at 1:15 P.M.

Edith Maxwell
Recording Secretary